It was discussed and agreed upon that for the 2019-2020 State Team awards the target requirements will be temporarily changed to 500 singles/ 400 Handicap / 400 Doubles with 500 targets total having to be shot in Louisiana. The change was proposed to be accepted by Al Sikes and seconded by Doyle Brooks. It was accepted by the general proclamation.

Hall of Fame

Doyle Brooks presented Marshall “Shon” Sanson as the 2020 Hall of Fame Inductee and accepted on his behalf. Congratulations were offered by all present.

100,000 Target Award

Doyle Brooks presented Keith Crissman with an award for reaching a 100,000-target milestone.

Financial Report

Jim Jenkins presented the financial report as follows:

- Last year the Association had a fund balance increase of $1276.
- This year the forecast will be an increase of a few thousand dollars. This was primarily due to the generous Championship event donations by Robert LaBorde, the Cupples Family and the Shaw Family. Additionally, Preliminary event donations by Eaton Brown, Prize Possessions and White Flyer; Open Singles by Danny Batten and donations obtained by Ben Forte of Camden from several companies.
- Infrastructure improvements were noted primarily as the new monitors for each of the classification/cashiering stations.
